

A man with dark hair, wearing a light blue button-down shirt, a dark blue vest, and a patterned tie, is leaning back against a white porch post. He is blowing a large, pink bubble gum bubble. His arms are outstretched to the sides. The background is a lush green garden with trees and bushes. The porch has white columns and string lights hanging from the roof.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, BEETHOVEN!

Put on your party hats and join us in wishing Beethoven a happy 250th birthday! The celebration for the greatest composer of all time begins with his wonderful Piano Concerto No. 5, known as the Emperor Concerto for its magnificence. Award-winning pianist and talented improviser Charlie Albright, an impressive young man who channels the spirit of great classical composers, joins us.

As a birthday gift to Beethoven, we'll perform the most popular symphony by his musical heir, Johannes Brahms. Brahms felt and demonstrated the legacy of Beethoven more than any other composer, and his bright, joyful Symphony No. 2 will be a wonderful commemoration.

MAYFLOWER 400

A three-masted ship, battered by the North Atlantic winds, sails into a harbor, sheltered by the hooked shape of the land. This was a momentous time in the history of America and our very special community in particular. The Cape Symphony is honored to present one of the premier events during the statewide 400th anniversary celebration of the Pilgrims' arrival.

In partnership with the Plymouth Philharmonic, we're commissioning two new works: "Mayflower" commemorates the signing of the Mayflower Compact in November 1620, and features soprano Kristin Watson. "Wampanoag: Stories For All Time" stars Native singer Jonathan Perry, joined by Wampanoag performers, presenting tales of the indigenous people who were here when the Mayflower arrived.

We will also perform Anton Dvorak's New World Symphony, a celebration of American potential and one of the most popular symphonies of all time.

HOLIDAY ON THE CAPE

The holiday season begins with the Cape Symphony! Year after year, we gather to share joyous music and moments that put us all in a holiday mood. 2020 marks the 50th anniversary of the Cape's beloved Chatham Choral; we'll shine a spotlight on our dear friends. We'll be joined by Deanna Loveland, a multi-talented Nashville singer/songwriter who also plays piano and harp, and gifted Orleans guitarist and singer Keb Hutchings-McMahon, former member of the Cape Conservatory's CJazz ensemble.

Emmy-winning author and journalist David Pogue of "CBS Sunday Morning" and the New York Times will appear in his other roles as musician, conductor, and music lover. Add a children's chorus, plus a sing-a-long for all to enjoy, and the result is a wonderful holiday celebration!

PASSPORT TO HUNGARY

With the blue Danube flowing between the mighty cities of Buda and Pest, and its blend of Western European and Gypsy cultures, Hungary is a powerful inspiration for artists whose imaginations were captured by its romantic beauty. Hungary's greatest classical composers Frank Liszt, with his famous "Hungarian Rhapsody," and Béla Bartók, who wrote "Hungarian Sketches," were inspired by their country's folk traditions and thrilling Gypsy melodies as was Johannes Brahms with his "Hungarian Dances."

Another of Hungary's most well-known composers, Zoltán Kodály took traditional folk music as the basis for an opera about a veteran, Hány János, who tells tall tales. Joined by the world-renowned Gypsy violinist Roby Lakatos and The Roby Lakatos Ensemble, the Cape Symphony explores the rich culture and traditions of Hungary.

THE FILM WITH LIVE ORCHESTRA

"Why, this car is automatic. It's systematic. It's hyyyyydromatic. Why, it's Greased Lightnin'!" And it's coming to Hyannis with the Cape Symphony! 1978's summer blockbuster Grease, starring John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John, launched some of the most popular songs of all time, including "Summer Nights," "You're the One That I Want," "We Go Together," and more.

"Hopelessly Devoted to You" was nominated for an Oscar, "Look at Me, I'm Sandra Dee" made a star of Stockard Channing, and Sha-Na-Na starred as the high school dance band, belting out classics like "Hound Dog" and "Born to Hand Jive."

Forty-plus years after the film's release, Grease remains one of the most popular movie musicals of all time. The T-Birds and Pink Ladies of our orchestra will perform the unforgettable soundtrack live to the full-length film. Join us and see why "Grease" is still the word!

Great things often come in pairs. Twin sisters Christina and Michelle Naughton astound worldwide audiences who have seen them playing with incredible synchronicity. The Juilliard graduates perform Francis Poulenc's "Concerto for Two Pianos," a delightful dialogue between the two pianists and the orchestra. Mozart inspired the composer while writing this piece, and it's a perfect example of Poulenc's light, charming style.

"Old Wine in New Bottles," a suite for pairs of musicians, is a delightful interpretation of four Old English folk songs. Our talented woodwinds and brass will illuminate the new life breathed into these captivating melodies by composer Gordon Jacob.

We'll present "Concerto for Orchestra" by Béla Bartók, featuring the famous "Game of Pairs" movement with pairs of bassoons, oboes, clarinets, flutes, and trumpets, each pair performing its own solo. Bartok incorporated eastern European folk music into this intensely dramatic piece that requires each musician to be a virtuoso. This will be a thrilling showcase for the orchestra.

BEETHOVEN'S 9TH: ODE TO JOY

As we conclude our tribute to Beethoven's 250th, we laud the genius who set the standard for perfection. Beginning with Beethoven's popular Egmont Overture, a thrilling tribute to resistance against tyranny, performed here for the first time, we'll then go on a journey with Beethoven the man, the idealist, the revolutionary.

The pinnacle of our celebration is, of course, Beethoven's very best: the towering Ninth Symphony. "Ode to Joy," the final movement, is many things: a protest anthem, a celebration of music, a call for unity among all humankind. One of the reasons the Ninth is so special is that Beethoven was the first major composer to include the human voice in a symphony. Requiring a brilliant chorus, outstanding soloists, and an enormous (and enormously talented) orchestra, Beethoven's Ninth is perhaps the greatest triumph of Western classical music, and the perfect joyful end to our year-long celebration of Beethoven's anniversary.
